GREECE & TURKEY

Athens

The capital of Greece with its recorded history spanning over 3,400 years and its earliest human presence beginning somewhere between the 11th and 7th millennia BC.

Crete

The largest and most populous of the Greek islands, it was the centre of Europe's first advanced civilization, the Minoans, from 2700 to 1420 BC.

Corinth

Corinth is well known from the two letters of Saint Paul in the New Testament, First and Second Corinthians. Corinth is also mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles as part of Paul the Apostle's missionary travels.

Mykonos

Mykonos's nickname is "The Island of the Winds," due to the very strong winds that usually blow on the island. As a result, it's beautiful landscape is filled with windmills.

Santorini

Arguably, the most beautiful of the Greek Islands and the site of one of the largest volcanic eruptions in recorded history: the Minoan eruption

Ephesus

The city was famous in its day for the nearby Temple of Artemis (completed around 550 BC), which has been designated one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.
